ALLIES' CONTINUE TO DRIVE BACK ENEMY VICTORY FOR RUSSIAN FORCES INDIA OFFERS HER VAST TREASURE

A Review of the War during the past Week

LATEST REPORTS—The Allied army continues to gain ground. A great battle is being prepared for extending from Meux to the fortress of Verdun, 200 miles east. The Germans have brought up reinforcements and attacked the Allies' left and center a front of 60 to 80 miles but have been driven back each time. The whole Indian Empire offer its vast treasure to the British government. Will provide hospital ship, horses by the thousand and private treasure if needed.

After a four days battle the Russians have won a victory in Galicia taking a large number of prisoners. As the result the Austrians are leaving Russian-Poland.

The Germans have changed their plans in their march to Paris, with the result that the Allies are wondering what the next move will be. The German army weakened by continuous fighting and forced marches is not in a fit condition to make an assault upon a fortified city such as Paris. Whether the army is short on ammunition and are endeavoring to gain time waiting reinforcements or that they are seeking to join the army under the crown prince, is not known. The Allied armies have seen in this their opportunity and have taken the offensive with marked successes.

A battle is raging about 180 miles long, the center of which is the most important point. Massed bodies of both armies are fighting fiercely at this point and while the result is doubtful it favors the Allies.

The right wing of the German army has been forced back 10 miles and is making a desperate attempt to save being cut off from the center.

The left wing of the German forces have retreated across the Petit Morin river to protect their line of communication. They have made violent but unsuccessful attacks upon the Allies' holding the right bank of the Ourcq river.

Two reports concerning the Austrian Emperor are published. One that he is in a serious condition brought on by a paralytic stroke. The other is that he has been dead for twelve days.

BIG TEMPERANCE MEETING

Field Secretary Aldridge Outlines Plan of Campaign

A big temperance rally was held in the Methodist Church on Tuesday night, when Rev. A. Aldridge, B. A., Field Secretary for the province of Alberta of the Temperance and Moral Reform League explained the aims and objects of the organization he represents.

Mr Aldridge is now travelling through this province for the purpose of putting before the people prohibition by December 1915. He said that the object of the league was to send the liquor traffic bag and baggage into oblivion, that the league seeks to stop the granting of licenses and to make the sale of intoxicants unlawful and then they will deal with the manufacturers. All licenses must go, said the speaker, hotels, clubs and stores, as there was no sense in closing the bar at certain hours but letting a man drink the rest of the twenty four hours, because he happens to be a member of a club.

Mr Aldridge then explained the working of the Direct Legislation Act, adding that he wanted to leave petitions in every district, which he wished every man that was eligible to vote, to sign. The petition was Nearly two million Russians are pressing against the German entrenchments in east Prussia.

President Wilson has proclaimed October 4th as a day upon which the United States will offer prayers for peace.

In answer to their request for an armistice of twenty four hours the Germans received this reply. "We will grant you that time to get out of France."

The Russians have captured Lemberg destroying 6 Austrian corps.

Destroyers and submarines of the British fleet discovered a passage between mines played by the Germans, but on their return one was missing. After some hours it returned, having been into the harbor at Bremerhaven. Firing two torpedoes it sank to the bottom, while the panic stricken Germans hunted for it. When he deemed it safe the commander gave the word for home.

Word comes that the famous Imperial Guard, Germany's crack regiment has been annihilated.

The Germans have taken control of every Belgium bank and all branches of the British, French and Russian banks, as a counter move against England's attempt to starve Germany.—The Vossische Zeitung.

The Serbians have begun the invasion of Bosnia having crossed the river Sabe near Milivitch.

to ask the provincial parliament to grant the people an opportunity to vote on prohibition. The act that has been drafted provides for the prohibiting of the sale, manufacture or importation of alcoholic drinks as beverages. A committee was appointed to handle the petitions composed of the following gentlemen: Rev. F. E. Clydale (convener), W. N. Sijpeken, R. R. Haight and F. F. Smith, Messrs W. Larson, E. G. Gish and N. Nunnemaker. Mr Aldridge said that men could help the movement by signing the petition, by speaking about it, by voting for it and by getting on the water wagon himself.

For the children a number of lantern slides were shown which were appreciated by the adults also.

Mrs F. J. Bean and Rev. F. E. Clydale sang a duet accompanied by Mrs L. H. McKinnon.

The meeting closed with the singing of The Maple Leaf Forever and God Save the King.

WHAT THE WOMEN OF ALBERTA CAN DO FOR THE SOLDIERS

Letter Received From Edmonton

The women of Alberta, in common with the women all over the Dominion, can render valuable assistance to the soldiers who have so willingly volunteered for active service and are now on their way to the front, by furnishing the Army Medical Corps with the following articles:

FOR WARD USE—Pillow cases, towels, tablecloths, medicinal utensil cloths, roller towels, fomentation wringers, hot water bottle covers, bandages of all descriptions, mug covers, knitted jackets.

FOR PATIENTS USE—Calico shirts, socks, handkerchiefs, dressing gowns, slippers, shirts of flannel for helpless cases, flannel jackets, bed socks, pyjamas, flannel underwear, abdominal binders knitted.

These lists have been supplied by the Canadian Relief Committee formed at a meeting held recently at Government House, Ottawa, when the three leading Hospital Aid Societies of Canada passed the following resolution:

"That this meeting recommends that all three organizations viz: the Canadian Red Cross Society, St. John's Ambulance Society and St. John's Ambulance Brigade, co-operate in the formation of voluntary aid detachments, male and female, throughout Canada, and especially so far as the women are concerned to make such articles for the use of the sick and wounded as lie down in the scheme of voluntary medical aid in Canada."

A shipment of articles such as those named above will be made from Edmonton to the Central committee at Ottawa within the next few weeks and all societies or individuals desiring to contribute some of their own work should communicate at once with the Provincial secretary, St. John's Ambulance Association, M. W. Harlow University of Alberta, Edmonton South.

A demonstration of true patriotism was illustrated yesterday when the "W.A." of St. Mary's Church and their friends met at Mrs F. G. Woolven's to make bandages for the wounded at war. The work will be continued tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at the residence of Mrs C. H. Wagner. It is hoped all loyal and patriotic women will show their interest by their presence.

The Carlstadt News

Carlstadt, Alberta.

HERBERT S. KETCHUM, Proprietor.
R. H. THORNTON, Managing Editor.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1914.

We have been asked to say something in this column about people peddling goods in this town and in that manner taking away trade from the stores. The policy of the News in regard to this may be found always in the advertisement columns. Of one thing we are certain, that this winter the people are going to buy where cheapest.

The stores have to pay overhead expenses, such as rent, light, heat, upkeep of stock and deterioration of the stock and a dozen and one other things which make prices higher than peddlars' who has none of these expenses. If the business people of this town think the peddlars should be taxed we must refer them to the Council, personally we can do nothing. Then there was a Board of Trade. Such an organization composed of live business people should be able to protect and inspire their mutual interests.

Why not resurrect the dead?

As the weeks pass these interesting Germans may awake one day from their dream to find themselves between the deep sea and the devil, as the old English proverb has it.

La Presse.

To be refused a certain length of time in which to bury their dead, may seem hard for the German army, but when we remember the violation of treaties, the placing of mines in the open sea, the shooting of peasants, the wanton destruction of buildings and their evident desire to gain time just now, we see the wisdom of the answer given them.

Mr homesteader, if you are not in need yourself, as your neighbor? We met a man the other day who would have gone out to work had he known that he could have got there free. Not being a reader of this home paper and nobody had told him about the special rates to the homesteaders that man last good money. This week a long distance telephone message came to us of a case of destitution in the north of this district. If you know any such cases, A. J. Drummond, Carlstadt, will give them an order on goods at once.

There was great excitement on Railway Street the other day. W. J. Hall was seized with a bad attack of heart failure—a man went in for a BINDER! By sheer force of will power, Mr Hall was able to keep cool long enough to supply the gentlemen.

Mr and Mrs E. H. Smith spent Sunday in Medicine Hat.

Revs. F. E. Clydesdale, H. Villett, W. F. Smith and Mr H. B. Brigham were in attendance at the Methodist District meeting held Medicine Hat Wednesday.

Fred Walker is visiting friends at Irwin this week.

Herbert Johnson was in the Hat Monday taking in the sports and as per-the prizes, among which he won a suit of clothes. Having won underwear, suspenders, shoes and collars and suit, Herb now wishes to get a line on a pair of socks and a neck tie. On Monday he came in first in the 220 yards, second in the running high jump and third in the 100 yards dash.

The News has received a sample of alfalfa grown by W. H. Millard 8 miles south of Jenner. It is this years sowing and had but one rain, but it runs about sixteen inches high and everyone who has seen has declared it to be very good considering the year. With a fair year it would have made a good crop. The "how" is the only thing that pays.

Rev. A. R. Aldridge B.A. Field Secretary of the Temperance and Moral Reform League for Alberta, was in town Tuesday.

James Gordon, of Jenner, is reported to have been kicked by a horse, but not seriously.

Jonathan Wheatley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wheatley, of Tilly, was among the Alberta boys who went east to join the Canadian army now mobilizing at Valcartier, for European service. Jonathan only recently came out of the hospital having had his arm broken during the spring manoeuvres in Calgary—Brooks Bulletin.

DADDY LONGLEGS.

Thirty Different Tribes, of Which Only Three Harm Vegetation. Probably no insect is treated by the ordinary observer with less respect than daddy longlegs, and his good natured readiness to leave various legs as souvenirs with those who handle him is nothing to his personal dignity nor his good standing in society. His short stanches of flight across the grass are not remarkable for grace, and he possesses neither the personal attractions of the butterfly, the terrific aspect of the spider nor the glaring imperfections of the blue bottle.

Daddy longlegs' figure is rather more blunt and corpulent than that of madam his wife, and among his thirty different tribes only three do serious damage to lettuce, cabbage, potatoes, leaves and grass lands. The females are said to lay their eggs as they fly and are sometimes literally stuffed full, carrying as many as 300 at a time, a fact which ought to cause Topknott to blush for chame, with her boastful cattle and one egg a day clearances.

The larvae are footless things, with black heads and excellent jaws, and change to pupae from August to September. They are furnished with spiny rings, which enable them to work their way to the surface of the ground, and when their emerging time comes thousands of empty cases may be seen sticking half out of the earth among the grass.

The tongue is a queer specimen of the blowfly order, and on each side of its entire surface is a thick, fleshy cushion—Detroit Free Press.

CONTRARY CROCKERY.

Oishes Do Play Quiser Pranks at Times, as Though Bewitched.

Housewives, think twice before scolding your maids. You know crockery is often said to be bewitched, and verily this is so.

The best service will smash itself to a cup and saucer. Then it is the other side, they linger on through stress and labor as if bearing a charmed life. Your special set of dowered cups will all rush to their fate with maddening tendencies to suicide, except one. That hangs on its book, cracked, but still alive to mock you with memory of its fair sisters. Notice, too, the everyday dinner service with the dark blue border and the gilt edge. It flourishes like the proverbial bay tree. But the very first time you bring out your best set, purchased by mistaking thrift, the sound "tween drudges madly to the ground. "How dreadfully careless of you, Mary Anne," you exclaim fretfully. But it isn't the little maid at all. It's witchcraft.

But a much more weird and wonderful proof of sorcery at work in crockery occurred the other day. An ordinary china jug suddenly refused to hold water. It leaked badly. Banished to the kitchen shelf, it stood for months. Unexpectedly one day it was taken down and used by a stranger and behaved in a perfectly exemplary manner. Explain it by anything else than witchcraft if you can—London Leader Weekly.

Partial Eclipse of the Hemisphere. In early American frontiers material and authority was not lightly to be denied. When Charlotte Fenswick, a southern beauty of the Revolutionary period, was fifteen years old she took advantage of the absence of her mother in England to fall in love with a northerner, Major William Leigh Pierce, and to marry him. On Mrs. Fenswick's return to Savannah, which had been hastened by news of the approach of the English army to Charleston, she was highly indignant to find her daughter married to a stranger.

"And who is this Major Pierce?" she demanded. "A gentleman, madam!" young Mrs. Pierce haughtily replied. "Go to your room, madam," she commanded Mrs. Fenswick severely, "and stay the rest of the day!" And the little bride meekly obeyed—Vanity's Companion.

Our Transient Help. "Come to dinner, old man; we've got a new cook."

"Sorry I've got an engagement to go, but I'll come to-morrow."

No use, she leaves to-morrow.
